BERGEN NEW JERSEY County VISIONS

OVERVIEW

- ❖ Visions is a transitional living program that provides a residence for young people who lack the skills to live completely independently in the community.
- ❖ The program serves a population of 16½ to 21 year old male and female residents who have no place else to live.
- ❖ In addition to a residence, clients are provided with academic, psychological and vocational support.

GOALS/SERVICES

- ❖ To provide a safe and secure residential environment
- ❖ To develop basic independent life skills
- ❖ To instruct on budgeting, saving, shopping, checkbook management, cooking, etc.
- ❖ To assist with occupational, vocational, and educational options
- ❖ To serve as an advocate and mentor for residents

ADMISSION CRITERIA

The applicant must meet the following qualifications:

- ❖ Resident of Bergen County
- ❖ Between the ages of 16½ and 21
- ❖ Enrolled in the last half of the junior year of high school (or a GED program) and working part-time, or employed full-time
- ❖ Have successfully completed a treatment program if there was past involvement with drugs or alcohol
- ❖ Agree to the program's house rules on curfews, mandatory group meetings, and treatment plans
